Privacy Policy / Privacy Act Statement

The nature of tax work requires the collection of certain nonpublic information. PIM collects financial and personal information from applications, worksheets, reporting statements, and other forms, as well as interviews and conversations with clients. PIM may also review banking and credit card information about clients in the performance of receipt of payment. All information we obtain about you will be provided by you or obtained with your permission.

PIM has procedures and policies in place to protect your confidential information. PIM restricts access to your confidential information to those who need to know in order to provide you with services. PIM will not disclose your personal information to a third party without your permission, except where required by law. PIM maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards in compliance with federal regulations that protect your personal information from unauthorized access.
