

Landlord Income and Expense Spreadsheet - SOLD Property

Note: We do not need to see actual receipts or statements. HOWEVER - you must have these documents if your return is examined by the IRS or your state taxing authority.
 If you are not sure how to read a particular document, please bring it to us!

General Info and Income

Property address:

1. Date you purchased the property:
2. Dates you lived in it as a primary residence: _____ to _____
3. Type of property:
4. Date you first held the property out for rent:
5. Dates the property was a rental during the tax year: _____ to _____
6. Number of days you used the property for personal use during the tax year:
7. Total rent collected for the year:
8. Date you SOLD the property:

Expenses

- Advertising
- Cleaning and Maintenance
- Commissions Paid
- Insurance
- Legal and Professional Services
- Property Management Fee
- Mortgage Interest
- Repairs
- Supplies
- Real Estate Taxes
- Utilities
- Other (list below)

Travel Expenses:

Year and type of vehicle used to visit property:

Total miles associated with rental property:

Year vehicle was placed in service:

Other Travel Expenses:

If you have filled in an amount in the "other expenses" category above, list the items here.

	Cost	Description		Cost	Description
1			4
2			5
3			6

Documents that will be helpful

Depreciation Schedule from the previous year*

Settlement Statement / HUD-1 from the purchase of the property

*if this is not the first year the property was in service as a rental and you didn't use PIM Tax last year

If you have any further questions, email us at admin@pimtax.com